

PETIT BOURGEOIS SAUVIGNON BLANC

(Vin de Pays du Jardin de la France)

The world's best Sauvignon Blanc comes from the upper reaches of the Loire River Valley in Central France, where Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé are made. 'Petit Bourgeois' is a precise expression of archetypical Loire Sauvignon and its terroir; the grace and fragrance of caillottes (chalk) and the weight and flavor of terres blanches (thick Jurassic clay). This enticing young wine is intensely aromatic, with a delicate touch of grapefruit, clean, crisp, dry and penetrating. A very affordable, lively, balanced, distinctly flavorful and refreshing alternative to the many ponderous and pricey white wines on the market today.
