

CHÂTEAU DE MERCUÈS

CAHORS

Georges Vigouroux and his son Bertrand-Gabriel make arguably the best Malbec in the world at the fairytale Chateau de Mercuès, a medieval fortress perched over the river Lot in Cahors. Rich plum and berry fruit is backed by an iron and mineral spine. The layers of fruit peel back slowly, revealing details of complex herb and spices. Take your time to sit with this one, you won't regret it.
