

CHÂTEAU
LA BRIDANE
SAINT JULIEN

Bruno Saintout farms fifteen hectares of gravelly soils on the slopes to the west of Saint Julien, cheek by jowl with the vines of Poyferré and Las Cases. The wine is classic: blackcurrant fruit with cedar topnotes, and woody accents. The finish has that lovely mineral saltiness that distinguishes the best Bordeaux.

CHÂTEAU
LA BRIDANE
SAINT JULIEN

Bruno Saintout farms fifteen hectares of gravelly soils on the slopes to the west of Saint Julien, cheek by jowl with the vines of Poyferré and Las Cases. The wine is classic: blackcurrant fruit with cedar topnotes, and woody accents. The finish has that lovely mineral saltiness that distinguishes the best Bordeaux.

CHÂTEAU
LA BRIDANE
SAINT JULIEN

Bruno Saintout farms fifteen hectares of gravelly soils on the slopes to the west of Saint Julien, cheek by jowl with the vines of Poyferré and Las Cases. The wine is classic: blackcurrant fruit with cedar topnotes, and woody accents. The finish has that lovely mineral saltiness that distinguishes the best Bordeaux.

CHÂTEAU
LA BRIDANE
SAINT JULIEN

Bruno Saintout farms fifteen hectares of gravelly soils on the slopes to the west of Saint Julien, cheek by jowl with the vines of Poyferré and Las Cases. The wine is classic: blackcurrant fruit with cedar topnotes, and woody accents. The finish has that lovely mineral saltiness that distinguishes the best Bordeaux.